Proposed Mural for Gallery at 537 DeKalb Street

Council, on motion by Councilmember Boykin, seconded by Councilmember Elliott, unanimously agreed to send the application by Gallery 537 for a mural at 537 East DeKalb Street back to the Public Arts Committee to address the committee's recommendations due to the mural "proposed state". The following reason for the denial included: color palette indicated in the rendering, how much time drivers/passersby would be able to actually see and capture the nature of the image in its proposed state, the style of mural was replicated in multiple municipalities and locations, images included in the mural are uniquely representative of Camden, and the inclusion of a Native American icon, but need for room for additional diversity.
